LPEP is designed to help a diverse group of community members effectively engage in poverty issues impacting your community. We recruit for a cohort of 40 people to represent a wide variety of networks including: gender, age, ethnicity, socio-economic background, and sector (ex. businesses, nonprofits, government, healthcare and education, etc.). Your application will be used to help ensure that your cohort best represents all sectors of your community.

Application Deadline: November 2, 2018
